

Cameo by Tanille Live Author Appearance at American Library Association Midwinter Meeting

For Immediate Release

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania - January 24, 2014, the Philadelphia Convention Center will feature author and recording artist, Tanille, at the 2014 American Library Association Midwinter Meeting in Philadelphia. Tanille will be promoting her new young adult fiction suspense novel, Cameo, along with the two new Pop R&B singles that readers receive with purchase at the Convention Center Booth #1865. With Cameo Tanille takes her place in the era of entertainment. Reading, entertainment, and fashion are part of the new social media driven lifestyles experienced by young adult readers across the country. As a talented young author and singer/songwriter Tanille began writing when she was just 16. “Cameo has formula for what real teens want. It has suspense and drama mixed with social media, fashion, witty dialogue and romance.” Young adults want to read books that represent their current lifestyles and that are entertaining.

Tanille is also the author of Jordan and Justine’s Weekend Adventures, the bestselling, eco children’s book series featuring a multicultural cast of neighborhood friends who teach readers to go green. Publisher, Fire Flies Entertainment invites librarians and literary professionals from all over to stop by Booth #1865 for a literary treat from Saturday, January 25, 2014 through Sunday, January 26, 2014 10 AM to 5 PM each day. With every order Tanille will giveaway an autographed copy of Cameo and MP3s of her 2 hit new songs: “Baby Comeback to Me” and “Feel It.” For information on the ALA Mid-Winter Meeting event or books by Tanille, call the publisher Fire Flies Entertainment (917) 213-1232.
