Did you know that Chanel, NASCAR, Toys "R" Us, and Subway are privately-held companies? Privately-held company information is often obscure and very difficult to find. Finding this information is PrivCo's expertise. PrivCo is a private company financial intelligence research firm. We aggregate information from thousands of reliable, proprietary sources. Our database includes revenue and employee figures, ownership tables, merger and acquisition activity, venture capital and private equity funding, and exhibits. Our exhibits include legal filings, patents, trademarks, regulatory filings, internal emails and other documents that are collected and added by our research and data intelligence team. PrivCo is the leading provider of financial data on major privately-held companies. Our data has been cited in thousands of media outlets, including The Wall Street Journal, the New York Times, The Financial Times, Bloomberg, CNBC, Forbes, and Fortune. Please stop by Booth 1763 if you are interested in seeing a live demonstration of our proprietary database and the information we have on hundreds of thousands of privately-held companies.

2:30 PM - 3:30 PM

Tom Bouman

DRY BONES IN THE VALLEY just got a great blurb from Wiley Cash (author of A Land More Kind Than Home): "Readers of smart literary thrillers are going to love this novel. I wish like hell my name were on the cover."

Zondervan 737

3:30 AM - 4:30 AM

Marie Monville

One Light Still Shines - Marie Roberts Monville, the wife of the shooter, shares her previously untold story of life after the Nickel Mines Amish Schoolhouse shooting. Her journey, while marked with piercing pain, now shines with the radiant light of Christ's redemptive love, encouraging others to believe in the capacity for beauty from their own brokenness.

1:30 PM - 2:30 PM

Cal Thomas

What Works - We know what works based on experience: The past and common sense. "Don't touch that stove, honey, or you will get burned." Why must we constantly re-fight the same battles over and over? In What Works, author Cal Thomas looks backward to see what the past can teach us about political, economic, relational, and spiritual issues that we'd like solutions for today.

Sunday, January 26

Albert Whitman & Company 527

2:00 PM - 3:00 PM

Alison Formento

These Rocks Count! Mr. Tate's class is about to learn there's more to rocks than being dirty lumps on the ground. On this field trip they're visiting the Rocky Ridge Mountains to learn about rocks.

Gabrielle Zevin

In the spirit of The Guernsey Literary and Potato Peel Pie Society and The Unlikely Pilgrimage of Harold Fry, Gabrielle Zevin's enchanting novel is a love letter to the world of books--and booksellers--that changes our lives by giving us the stories that open our hearts and enlighten our minds.

Aubey, LLC 1839

4:00 PM - 5:00 PM

Deborah D. Johnson

A Poor Child, Can make it out and find peace in a storm: This book is perfect for youth ages 11 through 15. This story will help all understand the affects of child abuse. All should understand and recognize it particularly those who are the most vulnerable; our children.

Hachette 630

3:00 PM - 3:30 PM

Barbara Ehrenreich

LIVING WITH A WILD GOD: A MEMOIR by Barbara Ehrenreich. When Barbara Ehrenreich was a young girl, she kept a journal of her experiences and observations. It is one of the things she never threw out in all of her moves, but she was also fearful of this journal, as it dealt with mystical experiences she had that shook her religious beliefs to the core.
